Agent Guide

Welcome to your Agent Guide

This is your resource for news and announcements, tools for SAIF policyholders, rate information, our calendar of free trainings, materials and information for selling SAIF, and much more.

It's also where you can log in to Business Online, the secure site that lets you access your book of business, check a client profile, check a claim profile, issue a certificate of insurance, use saifQuote to submit a new business prospect to us electronically, and more.

Agent news

- SAIF publishes 2011-12 Corporate Social Responsibility report
  The report highlights SAIF's work in safety, wellness, diversity and inclusion, community outreach, and the environment.

- New policy change request application launches
  Need to make an address change? How about change a business name? Policy changes like these can now be requested through Business Online.

- New for workers: MyClaim and the Worker Guide
  SAIF offers workers updated resources and online access to their claims information.

- Big changes for the Nondisabling Claims Reimbursement program
  New online payment options and changes to claims evaluation frequency and cash flow retrospective rating plans are now in place.

- First Fill is faster with online claim submission
  When employers submit claims online, workers may receive their First Fill prescription benefit within a few hours.

- Filing a claim: Fast, convenient, paperless
  SAIF simplifies the filing process.

- Enhancements made to SAIF's Business Online security features
  If you're not already using our online workers' comp resource for agents, this is a good time to register.

- SAIF now accepts major credit cards online
  Policyholders can pay their premium online using a major credit card.

- For more, see the agent guide news archive, and the agenttraining calendar .