

17th straight year without an increase.

17th straight year without an increase.

Governor Ted Kulongoski announced that Oregon's pure premium rate will decline by 2.1 percent in 2007 and that related assessments for administration and the Workers' Benefit Fund will also decline.

- Read the governor's press release
- View pure premium rates chart