Partnering to provide affordable coverage and improve worker safety and health

The restaurant and lodging industries face some of the most difficult workplace safety challenges. To help protect the industries' workers, SAIF is teaming up with the Oregon Restaurant & Lodging Association (ORLA) to find new ways to reduce injuries, improve health, and lower workers' compensation costs.

Under the partnership, ORLA members in good standing that meet the established underwriting and eligibility standards may also qualify for a group discount.

Choose the market leader in workers' compensation

- Our experienced claims adjusters excel at managing restaurant and hospitality claims.
- Our dedicated safety management professionals and return-to-work consultants understand the unique needs of restaurant and hospitality employers.
- Our industry-specific safety and health guides are available in print, video, and online to all our customers. We also provide resources and guidelines for hiring and training employees.
- Our website offers on-demand policy and claims information, certificates of insurance, and online claims reporting.
- Our employment risk management resources provide guidance in areas such as proper hiring practices, human resource issues, and drug and alcohol testing.
- Our other states coverage program provides a seamless workers' compensation solution for businesses with workers outside of Oregon's boundaries.

The SAIF advantage

SAIF is Oregon's not-for-profit workers' compensation insurance company. For more than 100 years, we've been taking care of injured workers, helping people get back to work, and striving to make Oregon the safest and healthiest place to work.

About ORLA

The Oregon Restaurant & Lodging Association is the leading business association for the food service and lodging industry in Oregon.

It advocates for 11,300 foodservice locations, over 2,000 lodging establishments in Oregon, and is the second largest business sector behind healthcare. In 2024, the hospitality industry provided over 201,300 jobs to working Oregonians and brought in over $14 billion in annual sales for Oregon.
