Free trainings

In-person, on-demand, live online – we have multiple ways that our industry experts deliver trainings. They're tailored to the agents we work with, our policyholders, and their workers. And they're always free.

Our trainings cover dozens of topics, with a focus on workplace safety and important tasks like reporting payroll or filing a claim.

Types of trainings

Online and on-demand

saif.com/online-training

Watch videos, interactive trainings, and recorded webinars when and where you want. (No registration required)

Agriculture safety seminars

saif.com/agseminar

Every fall and winter we take our popular farm safety seminars on the road, with several entirely in Spanish. There are new, relevant topics every year. (Registration required)

Construction safety seminars (located in both "Live webinars" and "Classroom" sections)

Expert, experienced training for workers in one of the most hazardous industries. Offered around the state, throughout the year.

Classroom

saif.com/classroom

These trainings are in-person in cities and towns around the state. If you don't see any for your area, please check back regularly.

HR resources for your business

saif.com/hr

Whether you have 10 employees or over 1,000, HR is a complicated part of your business. In addition to our live HR webinars, Barran Liebman LLP attorney Chris Morgan has provided resources and training videos on a variety of HR topics.
